Python Developer with Full Stack and UI/UX Design Expertise

As a seasoned Python Developer and UI/UX Designer, I've spent over three years transforming complex problems into intuitive solutions, leading projects from conception to launch with a keen eye for security and user experience.

My background in applied mathematics and cybersecurity, combined with a passion for creating seamless digital experiences, empowers me to build robust, user-centric applications that stand the test of time.

Professional Experience

Freelance 2022 - Present

As a freelance professional, I have led and contributed to numerous projects across a spectrum of technologies and industries. Specializing in full-stack development and UI/UX design, I've successfully delivered tailored solutions that meet unique client needs, from individual entrepreneurs to larger organizations.
